

Creation morontia and spiritual palaces on earth.

Session nr 13 of 28 July 2019 – English translation– original Dutch.

Report from Wivine.

As promised, I present here the 5 places where these great spiritual/morontia palaces were created, which will serve as a base for the 24 Melchizedeks who work here, Aaron the Avonal Son, Luova - the Creator Son and so many other Celestials such as the Archangels. They cover large parts of some countries and resemble the Taj Mahal in India, but much larger and grander, with some differences

Taj Mahal in India.

They also have towers at the corners as above, but not necessarily four to which small buildings have been added. There are “energy lanes” going from the main building to the towers with their outbuildings. These palaces extend over thousands of miles and cover vast expanses.

If you take a world map, draw lines from one city to another and you will see it. They have been placed in areas where there are no nuclear power plants.

This is also the reason why Celestials have placed the great "Spiritual Energy plants" with their satellites in sub-Saharan Africa. They are doing their work and distribute Spiritual Energy all over the world. This had to be done before the Celestials could begin to build these "Great Palaces". These "Palaces" consist of morontia matter and energy in the lower parts. The upper parts with their large domes consist of spiritual matter and energy. Morontia creatures do not even see them without help.

Melchizedeks or Jesus- Christ Michael or someone else will come to explain us the exact purpose of their construction. They certainly don't serve only for the spiritual development of terrestrial humans.

There are world maps on which nuclear power plants are indicated. Hereafter is one of Europe and the USA. You will immediately understand why such a large palace has not been placed on these territories.

Europe

USA

They are put in chronological order. Sometimes they go beyond the borders of a country. The dates indicate the day of their creation. It was very heavy for us and the fatigue sometimes lasted more than a day.

On Thursday April, 18th – 2019 I experienced the following in a group meditation :

I was asked to keep my eyes open. What I have done.

I was suddenly above Yemen, with my feet almost touching the ground, and I saw a vast cloud of dense, thick, white Energy slowly descending from the sky over the people, it gave them a shudder. The soldiers started to lay down their weapons.

Then it was the turn of Sudan, then of Libya. The same thing happened there too.

Then, I was suspended over Afghanistan, I landed on the ground with my two feet and I visualized again this thick white cloud of Energy coming down.

But the Energy cloud did not reach the people. The weapons were not placed on the ground by the soldiers, they were flying in the air entering the clouds. The white cloud was becoming gray beneath and kept the weapons. Then I visualized the white cloud again to bring it down, but it did not reach the population. And the cloud was attacked again.

So I asked : «what 's next?»

Answer: as you have seen, a lot of darkness has gathered in Afghanistan. This country occupies a key position for the darkness to prevent the unification of Eurasia, to bring peace and prosperity to this region. You have to organize a bilocation with everyone to eliminate this darkness at once.

Do not worry about the war in the other three countries, it will be solved.

Afghanistan is now the nest of wasps to clean up.

Luova will be able to participate. Just like with Aaron, it was necessary to wait a few months after her birth so that she could cooperate. End.

Then I closed my eyes and went in deep meditation.

We had to wait all this time for the creation of the 5th Palace because Luova had to be born first and the Creator Son (Luoja) who dwells in her was ready to participate.

5) Afghanistan/Pakistan on April, 27- 2019.

The following cities with some regions between these cities, played a major role in it :

Afghanistan :

- Kandahar
- Herat
- Mazar-I-Sharif
- Samangan province – situated between Kabul and Mazar-I-Sharif
- Jalalabad

Pakistan:

- Peshawar

- Waziristan region.

REPORT BILOCATION AFGHANISTAN ON SATURDAY APRIL, 27 -2019.

All names are fictitious, except mine.

Marcus : Duration : 1hour

I went in meditation and went to Abdul Haq Square in Kabul. There are only a few moments that I remember, I was away several times during the meditation. I suddenly felt a very bright light around my heart, then I became aware of a white sky, like a blue sky with beautiful white clouds. It's actually the only thing I remember.

Miriam: Duration 60min.

I prepared myself by focusing on Kabul. From the beginning, my heartbeat was high and I felt 'light' several times in meditation. I knew I was breathing hard and I still had very disturbed heartbeats. In addition, I was often in deep meditation. I have virtually no picture or experience.

What I saw were masses of people and statues of people being thrown blindfolded and bound from a rock. At first, I felt rays coming out of my chakra 6 and a lot of energy flowing along my spine. When I suddenly opened my eyes, we were an hour later. Then I closed my eyes again to see if it went any further, but I did not experience anything. Except that my spine still had a lot of energy and I felt a lot of pressure on my head.

Elodie: Duration 1h18min.

In my opinion, we visited different places, because I had the feeling of flying several times in the air. It's as if the work was very hard.

Somewhere we were at the edge of a sort of cave. It looked like an opening in the ground. We were waiting for what was to come out. A black dust seemed to come out immediately. Much more probably came out, but I did not see it.

Many energy transfers. Once I had the feeling of being twice as tall as physically. I had some shocks in my legs. Not much to say for the rest.

Helena: duration 1h08min.

An hour in advance, I had a lot of pressure on my head and it continued throughout the meditation. Sometimes energy around my eyes and for a moment, my C6 sent energy. No other experiences to tell.

Magda : Duration 1h04min.

I was a little agitated and did not experience many things. What I noticed was that it seemed that energy was coming out of the soles of my feet and that my feet were "heavy".

Twice, it seemed to me that there were drafts along my feet, especially the right foot. Activity on the head and C7, the forehead and between the eyes. A feeling of tightness in my heart. Moment of warmth in the heart, pressure between the eyes and C7 activities.

I felt twice a "change" of energy in my head. Sometimes my throat was very dry. No image seen or felt other things.

Ferdinand: Duration 1h05min.

Before meditation, I studied all places. I have no memory of what happened during the bilocation.

Josette : Duration 1hour. I read the Father's prayer well in time and visualized myself going to Kabul.

Immediately, my heart became warm, in front and on C4. I saw Heiltje and followed her. My heart was burning. C5 (hot), C6 and C7 were also active. Sometimes I felt a lot of pressure on my head and chest and throat. Sometimes the dark colors slowly became clear and purplish.

The triangle Jesus, Aaron and Luova was very strong. We helped them, in a circle connecting the points of the inner triangle. I felt something like that, but it's hard to describe. I do not recall anything about the last part.

INES : Duration: 55min.

I started preparing the bilocation well in time and closed my eyes earlier than usual. I think about 5 minutes earlier to start in peace. After a few minutes, I felt that I was "caught". Once at the photo spot in Kabul, I felt uncomfortable. I felt like I was stung in my feet, stabbed in my knee and my thigh. My heartbeats suddenly increased and I felt the bile rising. Shortly after, I had to get up to vomit. Fortunately, we have a sink next to the bed. I knew I had to "go back" right away. After vomiting, I was immediately calm again and without fear. I asked God and Jesus to give me all the love and light that I could offer during this bilocation. I stayed quiet for a moment. I did not feel much. Somewhere, midway through the bilocation, I felt that something was happening. It was like I was filled with light and I felt waves of love running through my body. Maybe it's not possible at all, but I felt all my chakras spinning (W: Yes, it's possible). Even at the wrists (secondary chakras). My hands were shaking and I felt incredibly beautiful. In addition, I saw a bright light that turned into a kind of fireworks. Then everything became quiet again, but I continued to feel my hands very hard (secondary chakras).

Hans : Duration 1h;

This time the bilocation started quietly, without any strange feeling. I felt that I was surrounded by a lot of energy in the room and my ears buzzed. I went to the center of the roundabout in Kabul, but I do not remember anything. I did not meet anyone there.

After that, I felt tingling's and my head sometimes seemed empty, as if I had no skin, just my skull. I also felt a stab in my Adam's apple and in the lower chin as well as on a cheek and head.

SIMON: Duration 1h08min.

At first, I felt a very strong pressure on my chakra 6 and 7, then I heard a sound that looked like a shot. Then I felt my body fly at high speed with my guardian angels next to me. I remember seeing Kabul, the people there were happy with our presence. That's all I remember.

Karin: duration 44min.

Regular preparation with prayer and I flew a few minutes earlier to Kabul. Immediately a lot of activities at chakra 6 and 7. In particular chakra 6 and this remained so all the time with varying intensity. Sometimes I felt like I was moving at high speed.

Jacob: duration 39min.

it was short for me, but I felt that it was necessary to go fast so that the effect of surprise was strong for the negative forces.

After the prayer, I saw myself successively at the different places:

- Kabul, Kandahar, Herat, Mazar-I-Sharif, Samangan province, Jalalabad,
Then in PAKISTAN: Peshawar and Waziristan

I imagined that in each place a great white light invaded the area to bring peace and we built an anchor of light at each place. After 10 to 15 Mn, I felt a strong pressure on the chakra 6 and then the chakra 7 and then on the skull. Around me the wind was very strong. (because we had wind on Tarbes - Pyrenees) . At the end the wind nearly stopped !

After visiting all the places, I imagined that Afghanistan and Pakistan were bathed with white light that brought Peace, Equality and Forgiveness.

Then the Jesus, Aaron and Luova came together to create a Spiritual Power Plant on this area of Eurasia to restore the original plan of life of Michael and Nebadonia. At the end I had a small headache.

Christiane : Duration : 1h12min

I started my bilocation right on time , said my Father's Prayer and then my intentions . It started with lots of bright gold colors that burst into white, then pressure in the head with a little vibration to my body. Just before I was out I remember seeing like a sun burst with the brightest sun ray coming out of it, that is all I experienced. I am grateful I could have been a part of this bi location to help humanity and that we were successful.

Eloise: Duration 1h22.

I floated to Kabul and landed in the square of the picture. I thought I met several members of our group and looked for you, then I was gone. When it was over, I struggled to open my eyes once more and realized that I had actually been in meditation for quite a while.

Roland: Duration 1h35min.

At one point, I saw a beautiful city in northern Afghanistan, but I do not know which one. I also felt that we were walking on roads. But I do not know which ones. I do not remember anything else. Except that the time passed very quickly.

Mirley: Duration 35min.

I started my meditation with joy in my heart to participate in this exercise. During the first few minutes, I tried to visualize the image that you sent us. My thoughts were then lost between images of certain places in Afghanistan, probably images that were already in my subconscious. In general, it was a serene meditation without disturbances or special effects.

Robin: Duration 1h24min.

I first saw a large thick blue-gray wall encircling all the regions in a circle. Before starting to meditate, I heard a word: excellent !!!

Alex: I am sorry!!!! I just figure out its 27! So sorry! I should have been there! I even wrote it down but don't know what happened! I will meditate anyway to send energy to those places without trying to bilocate! Regards dear Wivine!

Andreas : Duration : 40min.

Yesterday, as usual, at the appointed time, I prepared for meditation, read a prayer and closed my eyes. I tried to imagine myself in Afghanistan.

But I never fell in deep meditation, as usual. Although I tried to calm down. It seemed to me that I was almost all the time conscious.

Raphael: Duration 30mn.

My head was heavy, as if a helmet was being pressed on it. Then I went into deep meditation.

Nora: Duration 40mn.

When I closed my eyes, my chakra 7 started to spin. After a few minutes, I felt a helmet pressed on my head. Then I was gone. No other memories.

Joab: Duration 53min.

I traveled to the Kabul roundabout and viewed all the cities and areas indicated. I quickly fell into deep meditation but knew that there was a lot to do with the celestials both above and below the ground. For about 45 minutes, I felt a great heaviness on my head with an active chakra 6 and 7 and this headband around my head. After 45 minutes a sense of happiness overwhelmed me: the work was done, thankfully.

Vera : Duration 50mn,

Beings took me to the place in Kabul, when I arrived there, someone took me to north and south Waziristan. I started sending Energy and then the place was surrounded by a bright red circle. I continued to send Energy and the color turned white and then transparent. Everything became luminous and then disappeared. Someone brought me back to Kabul and after a few minutes I was taken to Kandahar. During the trip, I saw a lot of very bright, small golden star-shaped lights. Upon arriving at the place, I started sending Energy. Then, suddenly the sending of Energy stopped beyond my control. Someone arrives and says to me: "Do not think about anything, send the Energy with Love and stay focused" I heard this voice between my heart and my left ear.

I did what I was asked. The place was encircled by a bright white light and ascended into a cone. Then I was taken back to Kabul and it was the last place I sent Energy. As I send it, the place became encircled by a rising Light. At the very top the circle turned into a spiral and I see all the souls and spirits-entities ascending the spiral at the top. They look down at me, they were all dressed in white, sometimes I felt a big pressure as if my head would fall and something else that really hurt me. It was my eyes, which closed too hard as if they were pushed inwards.

Someone guided me back home. I had a very bad headache, a big migraine when everything was over.

Julia : duration 1h25mn,

I followed all procedures before the bilocation, after having well prepared a study of the map. I feel good and I'm leaving quietly flying over the firmament and I arrived in Kabul without complications. Arriving there, I did not understand anything about what happened there. Then I went into deep sleep, of which I have no memory. I woke up with difficulty. I could not open my eyes. My head was very heavy especially at the chakra 7. It looked like I had heavy loads on my head. This feeling disappeared gradually, and my head became normal after a while.

Nadine : duration 50mn.

For a moment I was dizzy for 10 minutes.

Francis: duration 57min.

I hear a kind of explosion with a flash of sparks. Then the heat of my body increased, and it suddenly changed.

Julius: duration 1h30min,

At first, it was hard to leave for me because of my work fatigue. I tried but could not do it. After 5 minutes I felt that someone raised me but I saw only the night. It was only when I flew higher, that I saw Madagascar below. I was completely lost, and I asked directions to the celestials. Then a straight path appeared in front of me that I followed quickly; this path became dark blue, then light blue further. And when I arrived on this clear blue path, I lost consciousness until the end of the bilocation. When I woke up, I thought only 30 minutes had past but it was a lot more. "

Rodin : duration 1h21mn,

I started by preparing my mind, my whole body, and when the appointed hour came, I read the prayer with the little statement of intent for the bilocation to the determined places. I tried to move mentally but with a little difficulty. Then I went into deep sleep of which I have no memory. In the end I opened my eyes although I did not want to wake up too much; I had heavy eyelids as if they were stuck. It was only after a few minutes that I could open my eyes normally.

Wivine : Duration : 1h32min.

I flew from Belize to Kabul. When I arrived on the agreed square, some of you were already there. Others came after me. When everyone was there, the place suddenly started to turn clockwise under our feet. So fast, I became dizzy from it. The Higher Beings who were there with the Midwayers and the Angels pulled us up and a little away from this place. We were placed in a circle. It didn't predict much good.

Then we all started turning rapidly in a circle, while we were emitting Energy to the person in front of us through our chakra 6. Like a fairground windmill. Luova stood in front of me and Aaron in front of Christine. Like it used to be. But we changed places and sometimes we found ourselves in front of someone else. I know I held myself a moment before Roland and also Aaron. We shot like crazy. It was going so fast. And suddenly, it stopped. An "orb of light" was created, a Christ light as Eloise had described in her explanations. Many luminous pyramids came out of the orb. In the middle, below the "orb of light," was the square in Kabul, but this time it had a large, dark, gaping opening.

{Christ light = explanations will follow in another session.}

I saw Jesus standing in front of the "orb of Light". I thought he would enter this opening, but he didn't. Then 5 Archangels arrived. Archangel Michael stood above this orb and plunged in the middle of it, in the ground, right in this dark opening.

At the same time, the other four Archangels descended into the ground all over Afghanistan/Pakistan, as if they did not want to give the great dark creature hidden underground a chance to escape. It was in the cities: Mazar-I-Sharif (A) - Peshawar (P) - Herat (A) - Quetta (P).

Anyway, it had to go out through this roundabout in Kabul. We all watched and waited. After a while, something came out slowly: something elongated, dark and round. Something like an earthworm, but immensely tall and thick. I did not see any head or face. It was sickening. It was pushed up and when this thing was already far from the ground, we all started to emit Energy to it. It kept going out without end. We continued to send it Energy. It climbed higher and higher. When the last piece was about to come out, I looked up.

There was a tall figure in a white tunic with a big red belt around his waist and a kind of sword attached to his belt. He gave the impression of being a senior military official to express it in our terms. He was looking at the head of that big, dark worm.

We continued to send Energy and gradually, this immensely long body of this worm began to disappear.

I asked who this person dressed in white was and I got the answer:

Lanaforge. {Lanaforge replaced Lucifer – Lanonandek Son - Ruler of our planetary system Satania.}

Lanaforge was looking down at the head of this worm. As we continued to transfer Energy, the dark body disappeared. Just a "small whitish netting with a face" remained that looked up at Lanaforge. To give you a comparison: this little whitish thing with a face was as small as a premature baby and Lanaforge was 4 meters tall (13feet).

This "little white thing" started talking to Lanaforge. It cried and begged for forgiveness and mercy. Lanaforge listened but did not say a word.

I asked who this "entity" was and the answer was: a friend of Lanaforge.

It was a fascinating scene. This "friend", therefore a morontia being or someone from the Lanondadek Order or another Superior Order, I do not know, kept crying with regrets and was asking for grace and forgiveness.

Then Lanaforge said to this "little white creature", and that was all that remained good of this once old great creature: "Yes, I forgive you. But you will have to redo everything from the beginning, relearn, start again and compensate. You will receive your second chance. "

I was amazed when I heard it. I was surprised to hear that a dark and evil creature, in our eyes, should not even appear in court. It was receiving "amnesty". Something in me as a human did not accept it. And although my thoughts lasted only a quarter of a second, without much negative emotions, Lanaforge heard it. He immediately turned to me and said:

"You, human, do not understand the great Compassion, the Love of the Father and our Grace for those who have sinned. You are all too happy when your own sins are forgiven by the Father without punishment. It is enough for you to turn to the Father and to express sincere regret and that you are improving your life, to obtain a pure white robe again. What applies to you applies to all beings created in Nebadon, to all Creatures of the Father. Always keep in mind the words of Master Jesus: He who is without sin, throws the first stone."

{I understood and deserved it. There is still some way to go. I should have understood immediately that Lanaforge had forgiven his friend and gave him a second chance. I was still stuck in human judgments. As humans, we talk a lot about love and forgiveness. We think we are so good and holy. Until we are hurt in the depths of our being and the negative feelings emerge, of which the lowest is the desire for revenge. Eye for eye, tooth for tooth. We are regularly placed in situations where we become aware of it. Fortunately. Because it allows us to improve and become a little more divine. There is human justice and there is God's justice and it is not the same. As long as there is something good about someone, be it a human soul or a morontia creature, this "little bit of good" is entitled to a second chance to grow up with love . Yes, we read it all and we all know it. We tell others. We are very good at this and pointing our finger at others too. Until we live it ourselves and we have to prove it in practice. Then it's a little different. And do not say, it will not happen to me. I'm not like that. Be careful, it will happen to all of us until we reach the level of God's attitude.}

Then, the opening in the earth was closed and the Light Globe could shine above Kabul and its surroundings.

From there, we left for Kandahar in Afghanistan where the group was split: Aaron stayed with me and others in Kandahar and Luova left with another group for Quetta in Pakistan. The two cities are linked by a trade road and are not very far from each other.

In Kandahar, we started the construction of a beautiful temple with domes, the feminine element, and I was shown that a huge large temple with towers had been built in Quetta, the masculine element. The two great temples were connected by paths of light along the physical road that connected these cities in the material world. The two "buildings of Light" were much larger than the cities themselves.

I suddenly realized that we were creating a "Taj-Mahal". I asked and the answer was : "Yes, my daughter, it is the fifth major light base." You knew it would be in these areas and now that we are here with all of you we are going to create it together. It's not over yet. "

From there, we left for Jalalabad in Afghanistan. There the groups were divided again and a group left for Peshawar in Pakistan with Aaron. Here too, the two cities are not far from each other and are connected by a commercial route. Here too, a feminine palace and a masculine palace were built. But vice versa. The feminine palace with its beautiful domes was located in Peshawar built by the Aaron team, and in Jalalabad, the masculine palace was built by the Luova team in which I then participated.

From there, we all went to the Waziristan region of Pakistan and created together an immense and huge Light anchor.

Then we were divided again into two teams:

- One who went to Mazar-I-Sharif to build a masculine temple with towers.
- Another went to Herat to build a feminine temple with domes.

The commercial route between the two cities was also connected by a light road.

Then, the Archangels helped us to connect all the trade routes between Kabul - Kandahar - Herat - Mazar-I-Sharif with flashes of light.

The 5th big Palace or "Taj-Mahal" was completed.

I thought it was over, but no. They showed me something else, something the Celestials had to create alone because I did not see us cooperating with it.

They showed me a huge tall wall of golden light that ran from the sea along the Indo-Pakistan border, back through Kashmir, part of China, leaning to the left - Kyrgyzstan, then down through Turkmenistan, part of Iran to the Pakistan border on the Gulf of Oman. Afghanistan and Pakistan are in this great circle of golden light.

(Wiv : if you don't look at a map you will not understand what I am telling here)

It was finished. I felt a veil cover the eyes of my soul but I did not want to fall asleep, I wanted to see more. It was not allowed. The veil fell and I felt for a long time in deep meditation.

I guess the whole operation, the actual work, took between 35 and 45 minutes. There are those who woke up after the work was done and others who continued to do other things that were intended for them personally.

END.
